CLAIM SHE IS NO LONGER AN ISOLATIONIST

PARADOXICAL BUT FRIENDLY
COMMENT HEARD IN WASH-INGTON

PRES. COOLIDGE LIKENED TO TIGHT ROPE WALKER THREA-
DING HIS WAY

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—"Isolation-
ist America is now head over heels
in European affairs," was the paradoxical but friendly comment in diplomatic circles here, following the signing of the Paris reparations agreement.

The Dawes plan to regulate Europe
has now been formally adopted by the president. Coolidge is described as a tight rope walker trying to keep from falling off the rope and into the abyss of political entanglements.

Many believe this government is already involved in political commitments. The American delegates did not actually sign the pact. The payment of American damage claims,
however, is dependent on the collections in reparations made from Germany.

PURIFICATION OF MARRIAGE LAWS SOUGHT

BILL IN SENATE INTRODUCED BY WILLIAM C. ZAM-
BONI

REQUIRES A CERTIFICATE OF HEALTH 2 WEEKS BEFORE THE CEREMONY

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Jan. 15.—Purification of the marriage laws in this state has been proposed in a bill submitted to the legislature today. Senator William C. Zamboni introduced a bill in the senate which requires the physical examination of both parties to the marriage contract. Each is subject to examination and must furnish a certificate of health two weeks before
the license is granted.

The scope of Minnesota's mothers'
pension law broadened in a bill in-

have applied for first papers are to be included in mothers' pensions provisions. The present law is restricted to citizens.

Another bill to extract the teeth
from the state boxing law was introduced by Senator Michael Boylan
of the Mesaba range. His bill would permit cities of the first, second,

restrict boxing matches. The limit
of matches for a town is to be twelve

2 AUTOBUS BILLS FOR STATE RULE GIVEN TO SOLONS

MEASURE IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE BACKING OF ALL FACTIONS

STRICTEST REGULATIONS ARE SOUGHT TO BE IMPOSED
IN NEW BILL

St. Paul, Jan. 15.—Both the senate and house today are considering
a new motor bus regulation bill, understood to have approval of all political factions and to be in line with
Gov. Christianson's inaugural address plans.

It is also understood to be favored
by the railroads.

The bill was introduced in the senate today by Senators A. J. Rockne,
C. J. McKenzie and W. C. Zamboni.

It will be introduced in the house
later where there are 21 co-authors:
Reps. John B. Gislason, F. A. Greene,
Alec Klineberg, F. E. Escher, Louis
Enstrom, Marius Waldal, Otto Kol-
shorn, Isaac Emerson, Thomas Fla-
haven, I. C. Undlin, S. P. Anderson,
Speaker John A. Johnson, Henning
Nelson, M. J. Jacobson, H. J. Farmer,
L. O. Teigen, Neils T. Moen, G. E.
Strandemo, Carl L. Iverson, and Oscar
A. Swenson.

The bill provides for regulation of motor vehicles used for transportation of passengers or freight by the Interstate Commerce commission to a greater extent than the Pearson-Sweitzer bill introduced several days
ago.

Under the new bill the commission
could fix fares, decide how, when and
where busses would be operated, lim-
it the number of competing companies on any designated route, change
present routes or order new ones, order establishment of bus stations, require bonding or carrying of insurance.

"In fixing the tariff or rates for
carrying of freight, persons or property, the commission shall take into consideration among other things the
kind and character of service to be
performed; the public necessity for
such service and the effect such tariffs and rates will have upon other
common carriers, if any, and as far
as possible will avoid detrimental or
unreasonable competition with existing railroad service or service furnished by other auto transportation
companies," the bill reads in part.

Further power given the state railroad and warehouse commission in
regulation of bus lines under the proposed bill is requirement that companies cannot change fares without
permission, cannot abandon service
without permission, must be licensed,
etc.

The bill introduced today is to be
followed in several days by another
bill providing for increasing the
taxes on motorbuses to a point equal
to that of the gross earnings tax levied
against railroads, and in addition
enough higher to cover highway
damages.—St. Paul Daily News.

CRIME WAVE IN CHICAGO TO BE COMBATTED

COMMITTEE OF 100 NAMED TO STIFFEN LAW ENFORCE-MENT

MAYOR AND CHIEF OF POLICE OF
CHICAGO MAKE STATE-MENTS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 15.—Appointment of 100 of the city's business and professional men in a war on crime in Chicago is the latest development here.
Clifford Barnes, who attended the
law enforcement congress at the White House, participated in by a
committee of 1,000, of which Judge
Elbert Gary of the U. S. Steel Corporation, John D. Rockefeller, Jr.,
and others were members, said they
would assist Mayor Wm. Dever and Chief of Police Morgan Collins in the
fight on crime.

Ways and means to combat crime
were discussed, the Chicago committee charging that "crime is ramp-
ant," and that the morale of the
police department is at a low ebb.

Chief Collins asserts that political
enemies are making a big issue of
the charge and the mayor denied
that the police morale was low, but
admitted there was considerable
crime in Chicago.

While the conference was on, the
usual drift of crime proceeded, including a policeman wounded in a
fight with bandits, several women attacked and other incidents.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Raw oysters
were put on the blacklist here.

They were banned by orders of Isaac N. Rawlins, state director of
health, in the fight on typhoid fever,
prevalent in Chicago and other parts
of the state.

More than 120 cases of typhoid
fever have been reported here during
the past three months and most of
them were caused by tainted oysters
according to Dr. Herman Bundeson,
Chicago health commissioner.

Placards were placed in all public
dining rooms, announcing raw oys-
ters were not on sale.

Consumers were warned to boil
oysters at least 20 minutes.

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Pima cotton, introduced into the United States as a domestic long-staple product to take the place of Egyptian

in a series of tests.

Two hundred pouches made of Pima cotton and 200 of ordinary cotton were made up by the bureau and
put into identical use for a year in
the hardest service. None of the Pima bags were torn after a year,
but one-third of the ordinary bags
were torn badly.

SLEMP, SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT, HAS RESIGNED

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION OF THE
SAME GIVEN AT WHITE HOUSE

SUCCESSOR TO BE REPRESENTA-TIVE EVERETT SANDERS
OF INDIANA

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—C. Bascom
Slomp, secretary to President
Coolidge, will resign March 4. It
was authoritatively learned at the White House today.

Slomp refused to affirm or deny
until given a chance to confer.
Everett Sanders, representative
from Indiana, whose term expires
March 4, is to succeed Slomp, it is reported.

Washington, Jan. 15.—C. Bascom
Slomp of Virginia has resigned as secretary to President Coolidge and Representative Everett Sanders of Indiana has been chosen as his successor.

Official confirmation of the change
was given out at the White House by
persons close to the president.
Slomp, however, refused all state-

with the law firm of Good, Childs,
Bobb & Westcott of Chicago. His
retirement, it is reported, has been
actuated by a desire to return to pri-

SENSATIONAL CHANGES HINTED AT CAPITOL

Washington, Jan. 15.—The resignation of C. Bascom Slomp as secretary to President Coolidge following
immediately on the heels of the resignation of Secretary Hughes, may
presage sensational changes at the capitol.

Slomp is out. There are reports
that Secretary Hoover is about to
withdraw from the cabinet and that Mellon will only remain in the treasury long enough to supervise tax
matters for a short period.

Under Secretary Joseph Grew is reported ready to resign. Despite assurances of the President regarding
the idea of no changes in his official
family, the Hughes resignation and now that of Mr. Slomp has spread a feeling of uneasiness.

Washington, stirred by the president's preparations for the new administration, believes that other
changes are in view.

Switzer bill introduced several days
ago.

Under the new bill the commission
could fix fares, decide how, when and
where busses would be operated, lim-
it the number of competing companies on any designated route, change
present routes or order new ones, or-
der establishment of bus stations, require bonding or carrying of insurance.

"In fixing the tariff or rates for
carrying of freight, persons or property, the commission shall take into
consideration among other things the
kind and character of service to be
performed; the public necessity for
such service and the effect such tar-
iffs and rates will have upon other
common carriers, if any, and as far
as possible will avoid detrimental or
unreasonable competition with existing railroad service or service fur-
nished by other auto transportation
companies," the bill reads in part.

Further power given the state rail-
road and warehouse commission in
regulation of bus lines under the proposed bill is requirement that companies cannot change fares without
permission, cannot abandon service
without permission, must be licensed,
etc.

The bill introduced today is to be
followed in several days by another
bill providing for increasing the
taxes on motorbuses to a point equal
to that of the gross earnings tax levied
against railways, and in addition
enough higher to cover highway
damages.—St. Paul Daily News.

Rude Police Break Up Wedding Party to Find Giant Still

Minneapolis, Jan. 15.—Joseph Corona was celebrating his wedding at a party for all his friends in Minneapolis but he and the friends made
so much noise police broke in and stopped them.

While the police were in the house
they found not only the party but in the basement there was a 100-gallon
still and almost 100 gallons of moonshine.

So Joseph Corona was taken to the Minneapolis city jail when police
went back. Corona lives at 2939
Washington ave. n.

When he was brought into police
court he was sent to the workhouse for 45 days. His friends filled the court room to plead for Corona but the only leniency they obtained for
him was a three-day stay of sentence.
Corona, who is 25 years old, was married Monday.

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—The Stock-
er bill amending the Volstead law
to make mandatory for courts to im-

in congress. The bill has a section

the home.

An attempt to attach one of the 2.75 beer bills to the measure was postponed. Under the Volstead law,
at present, courts have the option to impose fines for jail sentences.

PLAYING

(By United Press)
Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 15.—The
prison-made man, Harry Snodgrass,
leaves Missouri state prison Friday
to embark on a path lined with dollars and prestige.

The "King of the Ivories," whose piano selections entertained thousands of radio fans as the music emanated from Station WOS, will graduate from the lowly sphere of a convicted hold-up man to a "two-a-day"
on a vaudeville circuit at $600 weekly.

Snodgrass leaves prison after serving one year of his three-year sentence for a holdup in St. Louis, the time off being for good behavior.
Last night he gave his farewell concert before opening his new engagement at Evansville, Indiana, Sunday.
J. W. Witten, announcer, moved his paraphernalia from the WOS
studio over to the hall of the house of representatives. Legislators and townspeople applauded every time
Snodgrass touched the keys.

CRIME WAVE IN CHICAGO TO BE COMBATTED

COMMITTEE OF 100 NAMED TO STIFFEN LAW ENFORCE-MENT

MAYOR AND CHIEF OF POLICE OF
CHICAGO MAKE STATE-MENTS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 15.—Appointment of 100 of the city's business and professional men in a war on crime in Chi-
cago is the latest development here.
Clifford Barnes, who attended the
law enforcement congress at the White House, participated in by a
committee of 1,000, of which Judge
Elbert Gary of the U. S. Steel Cor-
poration, John D. Rockefeller, Jr.,
and others were members, said they
would assist Mayor Wm. Dever and Chief of Police Morgan Collins in the
fight on crime.

Ways and means to combat crime
were discussed, the Chicago commit-
tee charging that "crime is ramp-
ant," and that the morale of the
police department is at a low ebb.

Chief Collins asserts that political
enemies are making a big issue of
the charge and the mayor denied
that the police morale was low, but
admitted there was considerable
crime in Chicago.

While the conference was on, the
usual drift of crime proceeded, including a policeman wounded in a
fight with bandits, several women attacked and other incidents.

CHICAGO BLACKLISTS OYSTERS IN EPIDEMIC

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Raw oysters
were put on the blacklist here.
They were banned by orders of Isaac N. Rawlins, state director of
health, in the fight on typhoid fever,
prevalent in Chicago and other parts
of the state.

More than 120 cases of typhoid
fever have been reported here during
the past three months and most of
them were caused by tainted oysters
according to Dr. Herman Bundeson,
Chicago health commissioner.

Placards were placed in all public
dining rooms, announcing raw oys-
ters were not on sale.

Consumers were warned to boil
oysters at least 20 minutes.

Cotton and Mail Pouches

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Pima cot-
ton, introduced into the United States as a domestic long-staple product to take the place of Egyptian
cotton, makes better mail pouches
than almost any other material, the bureau of standards has determined
in a series of tests.

Two hundred pouches made of Pima cotton and 299 of ordinary cot-
ton were made up by the bureau and
put into identical use for a year in
the hardest service. None of the Pima bags were torn after a year,
but one-third of the ordinary bags
were torn badly.

against Frank Vanderlip will be dis-

day.

Speaking before Briar Cliff Rotary
club in New York two years ago, Vanderlip said certain business men
had paid Harding an exorbitant
price for the Star, and the Star management said they would sue Vander-

nounces that Vanderlip has retracted
such part of his speech as was de-

SLEMP, SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT, HAS RESIGNED

SAME GIVEN AT WHITE
HOUSE

SUCCESSOR TO BE REPRESENTA-TIVE EVERETT SANDERS
OF INDIANA

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 15.—C. Bascom
Slemp, secretary to President
Coolidge, will resign March 4, it
was authoritatively learned at the White House today.

Slemp refused to affirm or deny
until given a chance to confer.
Everett Sanders, representative
from Indiana, whose term expires
March 4, is to succeed Slemp, it is reported.

Washington, Jan. 15.—C. Bascom
Slemp of Virginia has resigned as
secretary to President Coolidge and Representative Everett Sanders of Indiana has been chosen as his successor.

Official confirmation of the change
was given out at the White House by
persons close to the president.
Slemp, however, refused all statements. He is to become associated
with the law firm of Good, Childs,
Bobb & Westcott of Chicago. His
retirement, it is reported, has been
actuated by a desire to return to private life.

SENSATIONAL CHANGES HINTED AT CAPITOL

Washington, Jan. 15.—The resignation of C. Bascom Slemp as secretary to President Coolidge following
immediately on the heels of the resignation of Secretary Hughes, may
presage sensational changes at the
capitol.

Slemp is out. There are reports
that Secretary Hoover is about to
withdraw from the cabinet and that Mellon will only remain in the treasury long enough to supervise tax
matters for a short period.

Under Secretary Joseph Grew is reported ready to resign. Despite assurances of the President regarding
the idea of no changes in his official
family, the Hughes resignation and now that of Mr. Slemp has spread a feeling of uneasiness.

Washington, stirred by the president's preparations for the new administration, believes that other
changes are in view.

His subject will be, "What My Home Grounds Mean to My Town." Beside being a forceful speaker, he will supplement his talk with many lantern slides.

4 VAUDEVILLE ACTS

Also Feature Picture to Be Shown at the New Park Theatre on Friday

The New Park will present Friday four big vaudeville acts and the feature picture "Notoriety," with Rod LaRogue, George Hackathorne and Mary Alden. A short description of the acts follows:

The headline act will be "Kodah"—A Girl Who Sees Without Eyes.

Gifted, with the power of seeing without the use of her eyes, "Kodah" the baffling enigma will prove a remarkable act. She will permit her eyes to be covered with cotton and sealed with various strips of adhesive tape, in addition to a blindfold of eight thicknesses of satin cloth. After this impenetrable blindfold is made secure, she will demonstrate beyond a doubt that she is gifted with the power of vision. Scientists have tried without success, to explain how she achieves her seemingly impossible feat. "Kodah" is reported to be equally at a loss to explain how she does it, although she has been possessed with this wonderful power since childhood. Her forthcoming appearance will prove to be one of the most surprising and

bluffing stage exhibitions ever offered in this city.

Charles H. Ramsdell, Landscape Architect and Engineer, to Deliver Address

The Crow Wing County Garden Flower Society will hold its first meeting of the new year on next Tuesday evening, January 20th, at 8 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce parlors.

The society was very fortunate to obtain as its principal speaker for this meeting, Charles H. Ramsdell, landscape architect and engineer, of Minneapolis. Mr. Ramsdell stands high in his profession, and was one of a few, in his work, very highly recommended to the committee, by the University of Minnesota. His subject will be, "What My Home Grounds Mean to My Town." Beside being a forceful speaker, he will supplement his talk with many lantern slides.

During the noon hour, Mr. Ramsdell is to address the Rotary club.

The Garden Flower Society meeting is free to all, and it is hoped that there will be a large audience.

4 VAUDEVILLE ACTS

Also Feature Picture to Be Shown at the New Park Theatre on Friday

The New Park will present Friday four big vaudeville acts and the feature picture "Notoriety," with Rod LaRogue, George Hackathorne and Mary Alden. A short description of the acts follows:

The headline act will be "Kodah"—A Girl Who Sees Without Eyes.

Gifted, with the power of seeing without the use of her eyes, "Kodah" the baffling enigma will prove a remarkable act. She will permit her eyes to be covered with cotton and sealed with various strips of adhesive tape, in addition to a blindfold of eight thicknesses of satin cloth. After this impenetrable blindfold is made secure, she will demonstrate beyond a doubt that she is gifted with the power of vision. Scientists have tried without success, to explain how she achieves her seemingly impossible feat. "Kodah" is reported to be equally at a loss to explain how she does it, although she has been possessed with this wonderful power since childhood. Her forthcoming appearance will prove to be one of the most surprising and

baffling stage exhibitions ever offered in this city.

Gruett, Kramer and Gruett in "Dixie Dan the Minstrel Man." Gruett, Kramer and Gruett have a splendid entertaining offering in which comedy and music predominates. "Dixie Dan, the Minstrel Man" is the name of this clever conceit, which carries all the lure of the minstrel shows with the additional combination of excellent instrumental musical numbers, graceful dancing, and the snappiest kind of dusky comedy. This act is bound to please any audience.

Clifford and Leslie in "The Merry Jesters." Clifford and Leslie, "The Merry Jesters" will offer a varied program of singing and dancing done in their own Broadway style. That they can claim Broadway as their Alma Mater is proved by the fact that for the past three seasons they have been featured in two of the big town's largest revues. They will be at the conclusion of their present tour in a new musical production of Geo. M. Cohan's.

Beck and Barry in "The Wrong Number." Beck and Barry are a pair of clever entertainers who have a real novel offering. Their act consists of a little bit of everything. Mr. Beck has a fine bass voice and is a capable comedian and is assisted by Miss Barry who makes a splendid and attractive foil for her partner's eccentricities.

Had a Very Strong
Increase

SCOUT EXECUTIVE SHAVER

In His Annual Report Predicts an Exceptional Year for the Movement

The closing of the year 1924 and the beginning of 1925 has shown some remarkable growth in the number of Boy Scouts under the direction of the Crow Wing council, according to a report from Scout Executive, S. S. Shaver. The three troops which have been meeting in Brainerd have had a very strong increase.

Troop No. 1 leads, with eight new boys under the direction of Anson Hagle, scoutmaster.

Troop No. 3 is re-registering at the present time, with records showing that this troop will be considerably larger under the direction of James Templeton, scoutmaster.

Troop No. 5, with Dr. K. H. Hoorn as scoutmaster, has had an increase of three members, and is in a very healthy, growing condition.

The American Legion post of Brainerd is sponsoring Troop No. 2, with Axel Anderson as scoutmaster. This troop has all the indications of being greatly enlarged and expects to be in operation this week.

The two troops in Crosby are doing well. One is under the direction of the commercial club; the other is fostered by the Crosby American Legion, Deane Blakney and Mr. Angst are the scoutmasters.

The Ironton troop, which has not been in operation for some time, will be taken over by the American Legion post of that village. This troop has in the neighborhood of 35 members and the Legion post of Ironton expects that its troop will be the best in this territory.

The Deerwood troop is re-registering this month with a few additional boys.

There will be a regular inspection of all troops under the direction of the new department added, with Robert Duerr as commissioner. John Lindahl will look after the range territory as deputy commissioner. Kirk Smith will inspect the Brainerd troops and additional deputies will be added as the movement grows.

With the beginning of 1925 showing such promising results, an exceptional year is predicted, with many interesting and instructive features for every member of the Scouts.

A training course in Boyology will be conducted in the near future for the training of leaders in the Boy Scout movement. This course will be primarily for Scoutmasters, assistants and deputy Scout commissioners, which will also include members of the troop committee.

The course is so planned as to contain features of interest to the leaders of any boy group, fathers of boys, or in fact leaders of girls may be interested in certain parts of this course. The course will be open to all who wish to attend.

"Supplie"

The meaning of the word supplie is "punishment; torture; pain and torment." As far back as 1653 the word was used by Blount to express the same meaning. There is also a passage in one of Mrs. Oliphant's works which reads: "It is easier to play the victim under the supplie inflicted by a pretty girl, than by two mature matrons."—Literary Digest.

Toothless Cow

A drover bought a young cow in Stratford, N. H., for a very small price from a man who didn't know as much about a cow's anatomy as he now does. The drover claimed the animal was pretty ancient and declared that her upper jaw proved it, as she had lost all her teeth. The owner, not knowing that cattle never possess upper teeth, reluctantly agreed and sold for a song.

Blackberries in America

Some variety or other of blackberry is cultivated in all parts of the United States except in southern Florida, part of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and sections of the western states where hot, dry winds destroy the ripening fruits.

Uses for Jetties

A jetty is an embankment which extends into a lake or ocean for the purpose of controlling the sand drift that would otherwise shoal up a channel or encroach on the shore. Jetties are usually built of large broken stone, or timberwork; concrete blocks, etc., can be used.

ADDRESS OF PRES. GRUENHAGEN

Gives a Comprehensive Review of the Chamber of Commerce
Year

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

Glad to be a Member, And Deems It
an Honor to be Its
President

President F. H. Gruenhagen gave the following address before the Chamber, which gives a very comprehensive resume of the work done during the past year, and the plans for the future:

After serving for one year as your President of this Chamber of Commerce, it was my earnest desire that you would relieve me of this position; but since you saw fit to re-elect me, I shall at least for once more, bow to your wishes and serve you during the coming year to the best of my ability even in the face of the recent criticisms of the Chamber of Commerce by one of our local papers. I want to say that I am glad of being a member of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Brainerd and deem it an honor of being its president.

In going back over the years work of the Chamber, I cannot help but go back another year to the time when Mr. H. P. Dunn became the president of the Chamber and we quit hiring expensive outside secretaries. At that time, we were confronted with a heavy deficit of some over $2400.00. During that year the shortage was paid up together with the overhead expenses of the Chamber of some $2700.00 and the Chamber equipped a Tourist Park at a cost of $2400.00 which is advertised nearly from coast to coast, besides many other things, and came out on the right side of the ledger at the end of the year. All this was done without creating the least dissatisfaction among the two hundred members.

At the beginning of last year when you elected me as your president, I told you, among other things that in my estimation, there were three things that this Chamber of Commerce should do the coming year.

The first was the distribution of some good Full Blood Sires among our farmers; the second, the support of this Chamber of the Athletic park and the third, the appointment of a Committee to assist our County and City Officials to help reduce our taxes.

Let us go over this briefly and see what has been done. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors, this was gone over and fully approved and I was authorized to appoint special Committees to have this work carried out. The Good Sires Committee was appointed and under the splendid management of their Chairman, Mr. S. R. Adair, they distributed twenty-five Full Blood Sires in our County among the farmers at a cost of $2700.00 and completed their work with a big celebration on the tenth day of May. I think you will agree with me that through this work the Chamber of Commerce received more and broader advertising (even over the Radio) than anything the Chamber ever undertook to do.

The second matter, that in supporting the Athletic Park, this Committee, as you know, was already appointed late in the fall but very little work done. This committee, under the efficient Chairman, Mr. J. P. Anderson Superintendent of the N. P. Shops, spent some over $700.00 on the grading and improvement of the grounds and they have a balance left on hand of about $325.00 which is very commendable. This work was hampered considerably by the unfavorable weather during the summer months. We all know that the improvement of this park will take several years before it is completed and the Committee is very anxious to proceed with their work just as soon as the season opens.

The third matter that of assisting our County and City Officials to help reduce our taxes. This Committee under their able Chairman, Mr. A. M. Opsahl, met with some misunderstanding to start with, but kept right on working. After several meetings, they found that their Committee of five was too small to accomplish the desired results and decided to enlarge their Committee to a Chairman from each ward. This Chairman to appoint not more than six men from his ward to act on this committee. After a meeting or two, it was decided that this committee should be still further enlarged by appointing a chairman from each voting precinct in the county. He to appoint not more than six members from his voting precinct on this committee. There being something like fifty voting precincts in the county, you can figure for yourselves, the size of this committee now. While it took some time to form this committee, I think you will agree with me, that it is due largely to this committee that our taxes were reduced ten mills and are now ninety mills instead of a hundred mills. A sub-committee was also authorized to go before the County Commissioners to have them set aside $70,000.00 to pay off part of the indebtedness of the Road and Bridge Fund which the Commissioners willingly complied with. While the work of this committee will last for years I think you will agree with me that they have done splendid work and are welcomed by every taxpayer in Crow Wing County.

I said in the start I would go over these matters briefly which I tried to do. A good deal more could be said about the work of this Chamber such as helping put over the Pickle Plant, the support of the 10,000 Lakes Association, a donation to our local Gun Club and several other small donations.

I want to thank all the committees, the standing as well as the special committees, for their splendid work and co-operation during the last year. I also want to thank every member of this Chamber for their moral as well as financial support during this last year. Without this friendly feeling towards the Chamber, it would have been impossible to accomplish this work.

Now in reference to the work of the Chamber for the coming year. In the first place, we want to assure Mr. Anderson of our full support on the Athletic park. Second, the Tax Committee has practically finished its work as far as the Chamber is concerned. Third, it seems to me that we have overlooked to give our full support to our local industries such as the Cigar Makers, Bakers, Our Local Foundry, Sash & Door Factory and very likely other concerns along that line. We have a good committee along that line now which has done considerable work, but I think they need re-inforcement and if this meets with the approval of the Board, it shall be my endeavor to appoint several committees to help out on this work to see what can be accomplished. I have been told by one of the leading Cigar Mfrs. that if he could get the support of our local merchants, he would be able to support from fifteen to twenty Cigar Makers at a salary of $35.00, the minimum wages per week and this holds true of the Bakers in this City and probably others.

The fourth thing this Chamber should work on is to get the Crow Wing County Fair located somewhere near Brainerd. I have had a talk with some of the main men from Pequot and have been advised that we would have very little opposition providing we would send a good strong committee to explain to them why the Fair should be held at Brainerd. If this should meet with the approval of the Board of Directors, I shall advise the Chamber later.

One of our merchants also stated that he would be willing to furnish $2500.00 to supply the farmers with full blood yearling heifers at a rate of 4 per cent the first year, 5 per cent the second year and 6 per cent the third year. The Good Sires Committee to handle the proposition. This will also be taken up at our first directors meeting.

That is all at present. I thank you.

an Honor to be Its
President

President F. H. Gruenhagen gave the following address before the Chamber, which gives a very comprehensive resume of the work done during the past year, and the plans for the future:

After serving for one year as your President of this Chamber of Commerce, it was my earnest desire that you would relieve me of this position; but since you saw fit to re-elect me, I shall at least for once more, bow to your wishes and serve you during the coming year to the best of my ability even in the face of the recent criticisms of the Chamber of Commerce by one of our local papers. I want to say that I am glad of being a member of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Brainerd and deem it an honor of being its president.

In going back over the years work of the Chamber, I cannot help but go back another year to the time when Mr. H. P. Dunn became the president of the Chamber and we quit hiring expensive outside secretaries. At that time, we were confronted with a heavy deficit of some over $2400.00. During that year the shortage was paid up together with the overhead expenses of the Chamber of some $2700.00 and the Chamber equipped a Tourist Park at a cost of $2400.00 which is advertised nearly from coast to coast, besides many other things, and came out on the right side of the ledger at the end of the year. All this was done without creating the least dissatisfaction among the two hundred members.

At the beginning of last year when you elected me as your president, I told you, among other things that in my estimation, there were three things that this Chamber of Commerce should do the coming year. The first was the distribution of some good Full Blood Sires among our farmers; the second, the support of this Chamber of the Athletic park and the third, the appointment of a Committee to assist our County and City Officials to help reduce our taxes.

Let us go over this briefly and see what has been done. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors, this was gone over and fully approved and I was authorized to appoint special Committees to have this work carried out. The Good Sires Committee was appointed and under the splendid management of their Chairman, Mr. S. R. Adair, they distributed twenty-five Full Blood Sires in our County among the farmers at a cost of $2700.00 and completed their work with a big celebration on the tenth day of May. I think you will agree with me that through this work the Chamber of Commerce received more and broader advertising (even over the Radio) than anything the Chamber ever undertook to do.

The second matter, that in supporting the Athletic Park, this Committee, as you know, was already appointed late in the fall but very little work done. This committee, under the efficient Chairman, Mr. J. P. Anderson Superintendent of the N. P. Shops, spent some over $700.00 on the grading and improvement of the grounds and they have a balance left on hand of about $325.00 which is very commendable. This work was hampered considerably by the unfavorable weather during the summer months. We all know that the improvement of this park will take several years before it is completed and the Committee is very anxious to proceed with their work just as soon as the season opens.

The third matter that of assisting our County and City Officials to help reduce our taxes. This Committee under their able Chairman, Mr. A. M. Opsahl, met with some misunderstanding to start with, but kept right on working. After several meetings, they found that their Committee of five was too small to accomplish the desired results and decided to enlarge their Committee to a Chairman from each ward. This Chairman to appoint not more than six men from his ward to act on this committee. After a meeting or two, it was decided that this committee should be still further enlarged by appointing a chairman from each voting precinct in the county. He to appoint not more than six members from his voting precinct on this committee. There being something like fifty voting precincts in the county, you can figure for yourselves, the size of this committee now. While it took some time to form this committee, I think you will agree with me, that it is due largely to this committee that our taxes were reduced ten mills and are now ninety mills instead of a hundred mills. A sub-committee was also authorized to go before the County Commissioners to have them set aside $70,000.00 to pay off part of the indebtedness of the Road and Bridge Fund which the Commissioners willingly complied with. While the work of this committee will last for years I think you will agree with me that they have done splendid work and are welcomed by every taxpayer in Crow Wing County.

I said in the start I would go over these matters briefly which I tried to do. A good deal more could be said about the work of this Chamber such as helping put over the Pickle Plant, the support of the 10,000 Lakes Association, a donation to our local Gun Club and several other small donations.

I want to thank all the committees, the standing as well as the special committees, for their splendid work and co-operation during the last year. I also want to thank every member of this Chamber for their moral as well as financial support during this last year. Without this friendly feeling towards the Chamber, it would have been impossible to accomplish this work.

Now in reference to the work of the Chamber for the coming year. In the first place, we want to assure Mr. Anderson of our full support on the Athletic park. Second, the Tax Committee has practically finished its work as far as the Chamber is concerned. Third, it seems to me that we have overlooked to give our full support to our local industries such as the Cigar Makers, Bakers, Our Local Foundry, Sash & Door Factory and very likely other concerns along that line. We have a good committee along that line now which has done considerable work, but I think they need re-inforcement and if this meets with the approval of the Board, it shall be my endeavor to appoint several committees to help out on this work to see what can be accomplished. I have been told by one of the leading Cigar Mfrs. that if he could get the support of our local merchants, he would be able to support from fifteen to twenty Cigar Makers at a salary of $35.00, the minimum wages per week and this holds true of the Bakers in this City and probably others.

The fourth thing this Chamber should work on is to get the Crow Wing County Fair located somewhere near Brainerd. I have had a talk with some of the main men from Pequot and have been advised that we would have very little opposition providing we would send a good strong committee to explain to them why the Fair should be held at Brainerd. If this should meet with the approval of the Board of Directors, I shall advise the Chamber later.

One of our merchants also stated that he would be willing to furnish $2300.00 to supply the farmers with full blood yearling heifers at a rate of 4 per cent the first year, 5 per cent the second year and 6 per cent the third year. The Good Sires Committee to handle the proposition. This will also be taken up at our first directors meeting.

That is all at present. I thank you.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS DONE THINGS

WHEN President F. H. Gruenhagen made his address at the Chamber of Commerce last night he voiced in no uncertain way the fact that the Chamber has a record of achievements to its credit. Not boastfully, but in a matter of fact way, he recited what had been done in the last year. The address in its entirety is published in the Dispatch today.

Each year, in recent times, the Chamber has sought to accomplish something of a concrete nature so that those who asked, "Has the Chamber done anything?" could be shown something substantially. One year it was the 50th anniversary celebration in Brainerd, another year it was the Tourist Park.

In 1924 three substantial achievements stand to the credit of the Chamber, the distribution of good full blood sires among the farmers, the support of the Athletic park and the appointment of a committee to assist in a tax reduction plan.

The good sires distribution cemented relations between Brainerd and the countryside, between farmers and business and professional men, between county agent and all the other factors of town and vicinity. The advertising secured was in every conceivable manner, from newspaper to magazine, from moving pictures to radio.

For the coming year the president mapped out a comprehensive course. There is further work at the Athletic park, support of home industries, extension of the full blood sires movement. Two large conventions will be held in Brainerd, the Elks state convention being the largest in the history of the city, and the Northern Minnesota Medical society. Dates have not yet been definitely set for these conventions, but they will not be permitted to overlap, as each is a great undertaking and must be carried out successfully.

A new convention sought for 1926 is that of the State Dairy-men's Association. It is sought because it works hand in hand with the extension of the dairy system in which the Chamber has taken such an active part in this county. And as to creameries and corresponding butter samples for exhibits at the dairy show, Brainerd has two creameries, with one each at Crosby, Aitkin, Pillager, Pequot, Pine River, Fort Ripley, Jenkins, Motley, Staples and Leader. This makes a total of 12 creameries in so-called Brainerd territory, but from such district having been assembled here and shipped in carload lots to Duluth. It is hoped most sincerely that this convention can be secured for next year.

WIND AND TEMPERATURE

A THERMOMETER measures the temperature of the air. Wind generally has no effect on the thermometer, unless in cases as described by the Portland Oregonian. The instrument is enclosed in glass and is therefore sheltered from the wind.

If there is a warm wind which makes the air warm, naturally the thermometer will register the warmth, and the same is true of a cold wind, but the thermometer is not directly affected by any wind.

A person in the wind will feel it keenly, while a thermometer will not register any change in temperature if the wind has not made the air warmer or colder.

MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATIONS

MIKE HOLM, secretary of state, in his report to the legislature, gives the 1924 receipts from motor vehicles registered by Crow Wing county as $78,428.99. This is almost equal to the total payments of Aitkin and Anoka counties.

Stearns county reported $172,260.93; Hennepin $1,875,917.91; Ramsey $972,629.54; St. Louis $703,025.66; Winona and Olmsted each about $121,000.

Total motor vehicles registered in the state for 1921 were 332,652; in 1922 were 384,398; in 1923 were 452,675; in 1924 were 508,030.

THEY should get some of the old type of Mississippi river steamboat captains to get the U. S. sub off its sandbar perch. The pilots of the Mississippi combatted sandbars daily in their navigation of the Mississippi and it was said some could navigate their boats over a sandbar covered with dew.

THE "Trade at Home" letters published in the Brainerd Dispatch essay contest, of which the prizes were donated by merchants interested in the Sales Day proposition, have furnished the groundwork for many editorials. The prize-winning letter of William Van Zant has been published, with interesting comments, in the Little Falls Transcript, the Bemidji Daily Pioneer, the St. Cloud Daily Journal Press, Anoka Herald, Dassel Dispatch, etc.

CLARENCE DARROW's philosophy may appeal to some judges and juries, but it is resented by many ministers. On Sunday evening, Dr. Grays of Anoka, will give a special sermon on the menace of Darrow's philosophy as recently presented by Mr. Darrow in the Unitarian church, Minneapolis.

EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN

Editor Dispatch:

We wonder when the legislature is going to pass a law governing the employment of single and married women. There are thousands of jobless girls both experienced and inexperienced seeking employment and are unable to obtain it because some one's wife is holding the position. The question is, "what is going to become of the nation's girls" and what has become of the golden slogan: "Live and let live."

THE DONAHUE CASE

Editor Dispatch:

Through your columns I wish to make a statement to the public to an unfair article appearing in the Brainerd Tribune published tomorrow, Friday, January 16th, 1925.

The Tribune has given me a quarter of a column of free advertising which I appreciate very much, and I am very thankful that it does not mention my name, only a clergyman of the city.

In fairness to the other ministers of the city I take the full responsibility of taking the Tribune to task for having so much faith in suspected crooks and criminals, and so little faith in the duly authorized officials of the city and county, such as judge, jury, sheriff and county attorney.

I took the Tribune to task not because it is a little newspaper published in this city every week, or because the editor is a lady, or because she is a newcomer, but because she does not, or her reporter does not, adhere to the facts in this case, State vs Donahue.

By the way, a week ago today when I called up the Tribune, I gave my name as Mr. Winter, later I stated I was a pastor of a city church but I think I made it plain to this gentleman that I spoke as a private citizen and not as a minister. To prejudice matters I was written up on the front page. But my church has nothing to do with this case. I did not consult the official board, and I did not have to. I spoke as a private citizen. It was the Tribune that resorted to insinuations in this case. Also I now write this statement of facts not as a minister of my church, but as a private citizen that is entitled to his open mind, just as much as the scandal paper, the Brainerd Tribune.

Let us look at the facts. The Tribune publishes an article quoting a minister of the city, making the charge that the clergyman has "pre-conceived notions," "hasty judgment," and thinks that his "faith in human nature should be unlimited." Once upon a time I had faith in human nature, but after ten years in the ministry—I have not, only in so far that the transforming power of Jesus Christ can do the impossible—to change man's heart. This is no reflection on the church people I hope, because in the church I have met the best men and the tallest saints. There may be few outside the church, but they are few and far between—the editor of the Tribune may be one of them.

A few weeks ago reading the Tribune for the first time since Halsted left, I noticed the stand taken on the Smraker pool hall license. I expected another Moses had come to town, and everybody complimented the paper for the stand taken then. I subscribed to the Tribune stand on that issue.

Now the Donahue case? Do I know anything about the facts here? Briefly I was at Bay Lake a few hours after the theft—or a few days occupying a cottage there. Mr. Rutger spoke to me at the time. I advised him to call the sheriff at once. He did. I was on the grand jury and heard "one side only," but a very damaging one—sufficient to return an indictment. I was in the court room during the trial. I heard the eloquent plea of the county attorney, and the plea of Mr. Ryan admitting everything except that which he was charged with. There was not a tear shed that I could see, and not a hankerchief was used except by the Tribune reporter. The jury went out—they disagreed 8 to 4—they have a right to disagree. Let us not criticize this jury or praise those who stood for conviction as some did—upon those lies the hope of protection of our lives and property.

People of Brainerd, stop your criticism of courts and juries—let us blame ourselves. Let us not have another miscarriage of justice.

Yours truly,
O. S. WINTER.

HOW GREAT MEN
MAKE LOVE

AS REVEALED BY THEIR
LOVE LETTERS

By JOSEPH KAYE

(© by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

NATHAN HALE AND ALICIA ADAMS

NATHAN HALE died just as he came of age but the fates recompensed him to some extent by allowing him to enjoy six years of love.

When Hale was a youth of fifteen, he met Alicia Adams of his own age, beautiful and clever. Nathan's brother, Enoch, also met Alicia and he, too, found her beautiful and clever. The result was that both brothers fell in love with the young girl. Nathan, however, was the favored one and when he left for college, he had the happiness of knowing that his love was reciprocated.

Then something happened which threw a boulder in the path of the youthful lovers. Mamma Adams and sister Adams objected to Nathan and the long wait for his maturity and success in life and their constant persuasions at length had the desired effect. Alicia married an estimable neighbor named Elijah Ripley. She married him with regret and perhaps she was not very sorrowful when Elijah went to the arms of his fathers a year later and left the nineteen-year-old matron a widow.

With Ripley's death, Nathan and Alicia were again drawn towards each other. They became reunited in love and their engagement was formally announced. Then destiny again interfered. Hale joined the army and became one of Washington's most zealous officers. His duty to his country was his paramount thought and no undertaking was too dangerous for him. So it was when Washington asked for a keen-witted officer to send on an important expedition into the enemy's lines, Hale volunteered and was accepted.

The young hero never came back. Disguised as a Dutch schoolmaster, he obtained all the plans and memoranda he was after but as he was returning he was caught. The next morning, without the consolation of a minister or even a Bible, he was hanged, dying with these immortal words on his lips: "I only regret I have but one life to lose for my country."

The following is a rhymed letter Hale sent to Alicia when the ardor of his love found mere prose inadequate to the expression of his sentiments:

"Alicia, born with striking charm, with the gift to ravish and the heart to warm! Fair is thy form, still fairer in mind, with beauty, wisdom and sweetness joined."

"Oh, friend sincere, of soul divinely great; sheddest thou for me, a wretch, the sorrowed tear—what thanks can I in this unhappy state return to you but gratitude sincere! Ah, dearest girl, in whom the gods have joined the real blessings which themselves approve—can mortals grown at such a heavenly mind when gods propitious shine for thy love?"

"Far from the seat of pleasure now I roam; the pleasing landscape now no more I see. Yet absence never shall take my thoughts from home, nor time efface my regard for thee."

Golf Ball's Speed

When a golfer drives from the tee he probably little realizes the terrific speed at which he has sent the "wee snail" on its travels. He would probably be astonished to learn that he has imparted to it a speed more than twice as great as an express train, and considerably greater than that of any bird that flies.

Through your columns I wish to make a statement to the public to an unfair article appearing in the Brainerd Tribune published on Monday, Friday, January 16th, 1925.

The Tribune has given me a quarter of a column of free advertising which I appreciate very much, and I am very thankful that it does not mention my name, only a clergyman of the city.

In fairness to the other ministers of the city I take the full responsibility of taking the Tribune to task for having so much faith in suspected crooks and criminals, and so little faith in the duly authorized officials of the city and county, such as judge, jury, sheriff and county attorney.

I took the Tribune to task not because it is a little newspaper published in this city every week, or because the editor is a lady, or because she is a newcomer, but because she does not, or her reporter does not, adhere to the facts in this case, State vs Donahue.

By the way, a week ago today when I called upon the Tribune, I gave my name as Mr. Winter, later I stated I was a pastor of a city church, but I think I made it plain to this gentleman that I spoke as a private citizen and not as a minister. To prejudice matters I was written up on the front page. But my church has nothing to do with this case. I did not consult the official board, and I did not have to. I spoke as a private citizen. It was the Tribune that resorted to insinuations in this case. Also I now write this statement of facts not as a minister of my church, but as a private citizen that is entitled to his own mind, just as much as the scandal paper, the Brainerd Tribune.

Let us look at the facts. The Tribune publishes an article quoting a minister of the city, making the charge that the clergyman has "preconceived notions," "hasty judgment," and thinks that his "faith in human nature should be unlimited." Once upon a time I had faith in human nature, but after ten years in the ministry—I have not, only in so far as the transforming power of Jesus Christ can do the impossible—to change man's heart. This is no reflection on the church people I hope, because in the church I have met the best men and the tallest saints. There may be few outside the church, but they are few and far between—the editor of the Tribune may be one of them.

A few weeks ago reading the Tribune for the first time since Halsted left, I noticed the stand taken on the Smraker pool hall license. I expected another Moses had come to town, and everybody complimented the paper for the stand taken then. I subscribed to the Tribune stand on that issue.

Now the Donahue case? Do I know anything about the facts here? Briefly I was at Bay Lake a few hours after the theft—or a few days—occupying a cottage there. Mr. Rutger spoke to me at the time. I advised him to call the sheriff at once. He did. I was on the grand jury and heard "one side only," but a very damaging one—sufficient to return an indictment. I was in the court room during the trial. I heard the eloquent plea of the county attorney, and the plea of Mr. Ryan admitting everything except that which he was charged with. There was not a tear shed that I could see, and not a hankerchief was used except by the Tribune reporter. The jury went out—they disagreed 8 to 4—they have a right to disagree. Let us not criticize this jury or praise those who stood for conviction as some did—upon those lies the hope of protection of our lives and property.

People of Brainerd, stop your criticism of courts and juries—let us blame ourselves. Let us not have another miscarriage of justice.

Yours truly,
O. S. WINTER.

HOW GREAT MEN
MAKE LOVE

LOVE LETTERS

By JOSEPH KAYE

NATHAN HALE AND ALICIA ADAMS

NATHAN HALE died just as he came of age but the fates recompensed him to some extent by allowing him to enjoy six years of love.

When Hale was a youth of fifteen, he met Alicia Adams of his own age, beautiful and clever. Nathan's brother, Enoch, also met Alicia and he, too, found her beautiful and clever. The result was that both brothers fell in love with the young girl. Nathan, however, was the favored one and when he left for college, he had the happiness of knowing that his love was reciprocated.

Then something happened which threw a bomb in the path of the youthful lovers. Mamma Adams and sister Adams objected to Nathan and the long wait for his maturity and success in life and their constant persuasions at length had the desired effect. Alicia married an estimable neighbor named Elijah Ripley. She married him with regret and perhaps she was not very sorrowful when Elijah went to the arms of his fathers a year later and left the nineteen-year-old widow a widow.

With Ripley's death, Nathan and Alicia were again drawn towards each other. They became reunited in love and their engagement was formally announced. Then destiny again interfered. Hale joined the army and became one of Washington's most zealous officers. His duty to his country was his paramount thought and no undertaking was too dangerous for him. So it was when Washington asked for a keen-witted officer to send on an important expedition into the enemy's lines, Hale volunteered and was accepted.

The young hero never came back. Disguised as a Dutch schoolmaster, he obtained all the plans and memoranda he was after but as he was returning he was caught. The next morning, without the consolation of a minister or even a Bible, he was hanged, dying with these immortal words on his lips: "I only regret I have but one life to lose for my country."

The following is a rhymed letter Hale sent to Alicia when the ardor of his love found mere prose inadequate to the expression of his sentiments:

"Alicia, born with striking charm, with the gift to ravish and the heart to warm! Fair is thy form, still fairer in mind, with beauty, wisdom and sweetness joined."

"Oh, friend sincere, of soul divinely great; sheddest thou for me, a wretch, the sorrowed tear—what thanks can I in this unhappy state return to you but gratitude sincere! Ah, dearest girl, in whom the gods have joined the real blessings which themselves approve—can mortals frown at such a heavenly mind when gods propitious shine for thy love?"

"Far from the seat of pleasure now I roam; the pleasing landscape now no more I see. Yet absence never shall take my thoughts from home, nor time efface my regard for thee."

Golf Ball's Speed

When a golfer drives from the tee he probably little realizes the terrific speed at which he has sent the "wee sma' ba'" on its travels. He would probably be astonished to learn that he has imparted to it a speed more than twice as great as an express train, and considerably greater than that of any bird that flies.

GETTING TOO FAT?

TRY THIS—REDUCE

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be able to reduce steadily and easily and pleasantly, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. Start taking them today and get slender.—Advt.

ST. PAUL GUILD
ANNUAL MEETING

Married Ladies of Parish Meet at Home of Mrs. R. A. Beise

OFFICERS OF ELECTED
Hostesses for the Occasion Were Mrs. Beise and Mrs. C. L. Burnett

The annual meeting of St. Paul's guild of the Episcopal church, consisting of the married ladies of the parish, was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Beise, where the ladies were entertained by Mrs. Beise and Mrs. C. L. Burnett.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Beise as president, with Mrs. C. B. Cocks and Mrs. A. C. Ebert as first and second vice presidents respectively, Mrs. J. R. Smith, secretary, and Mrs. C. L. Burnett, treasurer.

The next meeting of the Guild will be held on Wednesday afternoon next, at the home of Mrs. Ebert, 417 North Ninth street, who will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. D. King.

It was decided to divide the members into three circles, the Guild proper to meet every two weeks, and the circles to alternate with meetings of the Guild, so that hereafter there will be either a circle meeting or a Guild meeting each week.

During the year 1924 this guild earned for the church $1,083, which is doing very well indeed, considering local conditions. The treasurer of the Guild was instructed to turn over $350 to the church treasurer to pay the balance owing for this church basement, which cost nearly $13,000, and which will be paid for in full today. EVANGELIST IS MOST APPRECIATIVE

Grateful to Brainerd People For Attending Bible Conference at Full Gospel Church

MANY MEN IN AUDIENCE

Tonight Evangelist Will Tell The Story of His Conversion

A full house was on hand again last night at the Full Gospel church on Kindred street and many had to turn back—not being able to find seats. Evangelist Holzer expressed his appreciation to the Brainerd people for the hearty way they received him in their midst. He also said a few words about the Brainerd Dispatch and the many courtesies extended to him by it. "Very seldom that one finds in these days a newspaper which so heartily lends its support to the religious interests of the community as does the Daily Dispatch," Holzer declared.

One of the very interesting features of the Holzer Bible Conference is the large attendance of serious minded men in attendance. The subject of the sermon last night was "The Battle of Armageddon, The Coming Great World War." The text was taken from the 16th chapter of Revelation, the 16th verse—"and He gathered them together into a place called Armageddon."

"This world has been the scene of many bloody wars from time immemorial, Holzer began—and then went on to say—Before this greatest of all wars can be fought according to the scriptures, the three pillars of civilization will be undermined that clearly set forth in the three evil spirits described in the 16th chapter of Revelation. One spirit comes out of the mouth of the Dragon which is Satan and who undermines the moral world of civilization. This is going on now. Never was there a time when the women world and men world was confronted with greater and more subtle temptations to abandon standards which were sacred to our grandparents, high and noble standards—than now.

"The second spirit comes out of the mouth of the beast—and the beast stands for the political world. The undermining of just and righteous political standards is also going on now and causing great disturbance in the minds of earnest thinking people.

"The third spirit comes out of the mouth of the false prophet who represents the church world and was there ever a time the church was more confused within her own borders than now? But these are the three pillars of civilization and they must give way before this great battle of Armageddon can be fought. The aggressors in this war to be fought six miles out of Jerusalem on the hill of Megiddo are the nations encircling the Mediterranean sea or in other words what is now known—as the League of Nations. That is the fourth beast Daniel has foreseen in the record of his 7th chapter. The objective will be the final attempt on the part of gentile powers to destroy the Jewish nation. It will be then that the great revelation of Christ will be staged and Israel will then be ready to accept her long rejected Messiah who will come according to His word and save them and will thwart these signs of the Jew persecuting nations.

Tonight Holzer will tell the story of his conversion—from Judaism to Christ.

Stellar Cast in "The Eternal City" at New Park Last Time Tonight

We have often heard the phrase "All-Star Cast" used in connection with motion pictures, but never has the term been so applicable as in the case of "The Eternal City," a First National picture produced by George Fitzmaurice, showing at the New Park last time tonight.

The many players appearing in this production are headed by an exceptionally brilliant quintette, consisting of Barbara La Marr, Lionel Barrymore, Bert Lyell, Richard Bennett and Montagu Love, all of whom have attained stellar rank in previous pictures.

Truth is stranger than fiction, and fully as fascinating, in the case of the life of Buck Jones, the popular William Fox western star in "Against All Odds" which comes to the Lyceum Theatre on Saturday only.

Alda, Bori, de Gogorza, Jeritza, Martinelli, Matzenauer, McCormack, Ponselle, Schumann-Heink and Scotti—all these have become strong concert probabilities for the radio fans of the country.

John McCormack and Lucrezia Bori inaugurated on New Year's night a series of radio recitals by the world famous artists of the Victor Talking Machine Company. The experiment in offering over the wireless the efforts of the top-notch artists in the musical world was made possible by a co-operative arrangement between that company and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The first of the radio recitals emanated from the studio of WEAF, New York, and was broadcast simultaneously from eight other studios.

"The most remarkable educational development of our time," Mr. E. R. Johnson, president of the Victor Talking Machine Company, said in discussing the innovation, "is the progress of the rural American toward equality of cultural opportunity with his city brother. I feel that our company played a major part in that progress through the development of the photograph and the enlistment of the real musical stars of the world for Victor recording. Now we are making another contribution, the value of which no one is likely to question."

Among other Victor artists from whom selections will be made for future concerts are: Bauer, de Luca, Fleta, Gordon, and the Pionazey Quartet.

Scene from "DARK STAIRWAYS" A UNIVERSAL PICTURE. Starring HERBERT RAWLINSON

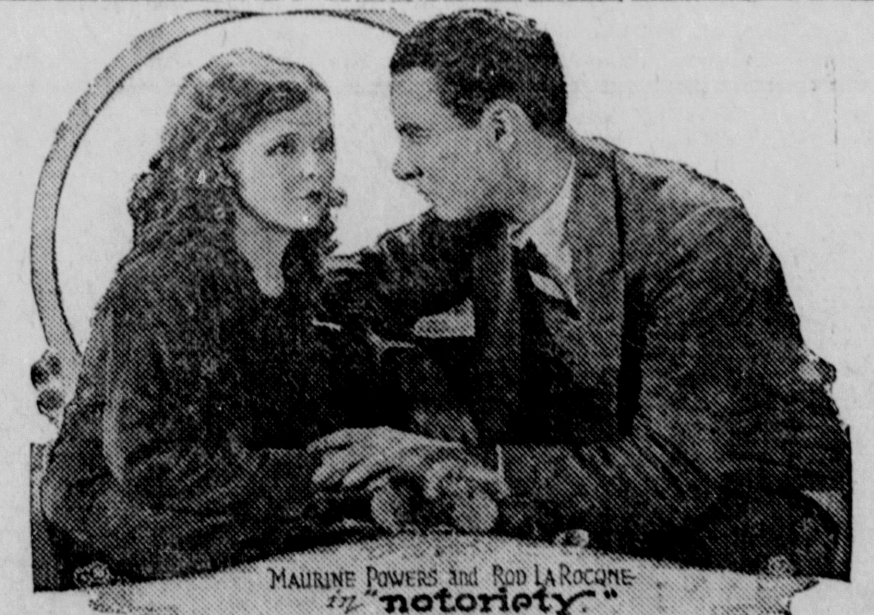

"Dark Stairways" Gives Rawlinson Mystery Role at Lyceum

"Dark Stairways," starring Herbert Rawlinson, which will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Friday, is the third picture made by Rawlinson with Ruth Dwyer as leading woman and Robert F. Hill as director.

"Dark Stairways" was written by Marion Orth and is the story of a society crook who encompassed the conviction on a felony charge of a man who considered the crook his friend. Through the assistance of a fellow convict the man escapes.

In this effort the escaped man feels called upon to do some porch climbing that he may visit several of the women whom he had known before his disgrace. Incidentally he has a love problem to solve and he succeeds through the window route.

Public Blamed for Girl's Weakness

Who is responsible for the divorce cases that crowd the courts and the columns of the daily press? Who is to blame for the love of the lime-light that possesses young girls of today? Whose fault is it that the young generation feeds on sensationalism and demands continual novelty—in dress, dances, and diversions?

We ourselves are to blame—is the answer of Director Will Nigh's latest screen production, "Notoriety" which is scheduled to be shown at the New Park Friday only with four vaudeville acts at popular prices. Young folks of today are over-anxious to attract attention, and are too eager to applaud anyone else that manages to catch the public eye. They worship the divorcee who succeeds in breaking out in print. They pay homage to any fanatic of a new-fangled idea. To quote one of the stirring titles in the film: "The public demands the latest sensation over the breakfast table."

Lyceum Theatre on Sunday for a run of two days only.

Four Vaudeville Acts at New Park Every Friday

The New Park presents four big vaudeville acts and a feature picture every Friday, matinee and night, at popular prices.

Sea Lion's Weight

On the Pacific coast there are two species of sea lions, the California sea lion, ranging along the coast of that state, and the Steller sea lion, ranging from the California coast north into Alaska, says Nature Magazine. The largest of the old bulls will measure about ten feet and the estimated weight is about twelve or fifteen hundred pounds. The cows weigh four to six hundred pounds.

Tunic Mode as Varied as Genius of Sponsors

The tunic frock continues to dominate the mode, and understandably, for it is one of those rare fashions which is adaptable to all occasions and to all types. For there are tunics and tunics, from the ultra long and tight, to the equally ultra flounced and flaring.

But withal the tunic mode is as varied as the genius of its sponsors. One prominent designer, whose opening occurred recently, showed, we are told, "a very good and simple afternoon frock with a tunic in black crepe split at the sides and at the back and buttoned with a few big buttons. The panels and forepart were bordered with silk braid. A narrow band of ermine round the neck gave a very young aspect to this pretty mode model.

The use of the neckband continuing in a scarf effect has been noted. It was a feature of the Jenny collection, according to word received from Henri Creange, and Paton, too, utilized this theme in many of his afternoon models. Quite often the dresses were made in two fabrics, one forming decorations on the other, or one used for the top and the other for the skirt.

Trimmed With Autumn Leaves

Hats of almond green velours are trimmed with autumn leaves. A huge cluster of purple and white violets holds in place the folds of a frock of black lace, while gold embroidery in an ecclesiastical design appears as the decoration on a draped beret of purple velvet.

CHAMBER COMMERCE BUSY YEAR IN 1924

Annual Reports and President's Address Substantiate Work Carried On

1925 EQUALLY FRUITFUL

Chamber, According to Pres. Gruenhagen, Sets a High Goal for New Year

The year 1924 was a very busy one, and one filled with worth-while achievements for the Chamber of Commerce, as shown by the annual reports submitted by the standing committees and the officers, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday night.

George D. LaBar, chairman of the traffic committee, reported that the several matters referred to this committee had been given attention, and as far as possible some disposition made and the results reported back to the Chamber. The most recent communication referred to this committee was the request from Bemidji for cooperation in connection with the extension of the paved highway to the north.

The publicity committee's report showed that the Chamber of Commerce, the city of Brainerd and Crow Wing county have received much favorable and valuable advertising during the past year, at a very low cost to the organization. Among the activities of this committee which are of general interest, are the following:

The publicity given to Brainerd's Better Sires Day, was very extensive. Daily and weekly newspapers throughout this territory carried quite a little mention; the local press gave much space; dairy magazines and farm periodicals commented on the event, and the official organ of the Bankers of America carried a page story. Through the cooperation of the New Park theatre, Kinograms film company placed the day's events in its news movies and gave it publicity throughout the United States. The radio carried the story too.

The Brainerd Gun Club, by vote of the Chamber, was extended assistance when it held its one-day shoot in Brainerd, preparatory to the state trapshooting tournament of Captain W. H. Fawcett, who mentioned Brainerd in his various advertisements of the state shoot.

Working in conjunction with the Elks lodge, the Rotary and Lion clubs, Mayor O'Brien, R. R. Wise of the 10,000 Lakes Association, Captain W. H. Fawcett, and others, the Elks state convention has been secured for 1925. This will be one of the really big conventions of the year in Minnesota, and Brainerd will gain much publicity wherever there is an Elks lodge.

The Northern Minnesota Medical Association's convention was secured for Brainerd by Drs. J. A. Thabes and R. A. Beise, and will be held in this city during 1925. Like the Elks convention, the cooperation of the Chamber will be required in entertaining this convention.

While it was impossible to secure the 1925 convention of the United Commercial Travelers of Minnesota and North Dakota, still Brainerd was given much favorable publicity in this respect at the last convention, both by newspapers and in convention addresses.

A recent happening, which gave the city some undesired publicity was the Radio Digest magazine's ill-advised story on a "Churchless Community." To counteract the false impression so gained, following the various newspaper articles in which Brainerd was defended by Bemidji, St. Cloud, Duluth, twin city and other newspapers, WCCO Washburn-Crosby Gold Medal broadcasting station, has offered to put on a "Brainerd Program" at a date suitable to the Chamber and participants. The date set is Friday, January 30th, from 7:30 to 9 o'clock P. M., and the event has received nation-wide publicity by being mentioned in all papers throughout the United States.

News sent out concerning the Chamber has always reflected an attitude of community helpfulness, the publicity report disclosed, and with a public spirited devotion to Brainerd and its best interests.

The municipal committee had only one duty assigned to it during the past year—the solicitation of material for the building of an information hut, to be administered by the Boy Scout council. The committee performed its duty, the hut was completed, but the work of installing an information bureau was not carried out. The hut, however, remains the property of the Chamber.

The city planning committee while it had no work assigned to it

during the past year, made a report on the subject, which was characterized as a very important one for Brainerd. The matter of city planning, according to this report, is becoming more important each year, and the League of Minnesota Municipalities, at the present session of the state legislature, is preparing to introduce two measures which will assist municipalities in carrying out the idea of a city-wide plan. The League has written for the governing body of the municipalities of Minnesota to study the proposed measures and if in favor of them to endorse the measures by proper resolutions or motions.

A copy of the proposed legislative measures is in the office of the city clerk, continues the committee report, and will be presented to the city council at its next regular meeting. They are primarily introduced so that cities of the second, third or fourth class, and incorporated villages may establish a city planning department, a zoning commission or both.

The chairman of the publicity committee brought up the matter of inviting the state dairymen's convention to Brainerd for its annual meeting next year, and on motion carried such an invitation will be extended. The convention opens in Wadena on next Tuesday.

The ladies auxiliary of the American Legion asked permission to use the club rooms of the Chamber on the first Monday of each month, and this permission was granted providing the rooms are not otherwise taken.

The chairman of the finance committee explained his report for the past year, and suggested a new plan of multiple membership, which the Chamber adopted. The finance committee was asked to prepare the list of membership as suggested in the report and to present this list to the membership committee to be solicited.

CHAMBER COMMERCE BUSY YEAR IN 1924

Annual Reports and President's Address Substantiate Work Carried On

1925 EQUALLY FRUITFUL

Chamber, According to Pres. Gruenhagen, Sets a High Goal for New Year

The year 1924 was a very busy one, and one filled with worth-while achievements for the Chamber of Commerce, as shown by the annual reports submitted by the standing committees and the officers, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday night.

George D. LaBar, chairman of the traffic committee, reported that the several matters referred to this committee had been given attention, and as far as possible some disposition made and the results reported back to the Chamber. The most recent communication referred to this committee was the request from Bemidji for cooperation in connection with the extension of the paved highway to the north.

The publicity committee's report showed that the Chamber of Commerce, the city of Brainerd and Crow Wing county have received much favorable and valuable advertising during the past year, at a very low cost to the organization. Among the activities of this committee which are of general interest, are the following:

The publicity given to Brainerd's Better Sires Day, was very extensive. Daily and weekly newspapers throughout this territory carried quite a little mention; the local press gave much space; dairy magazines and farm periodicals commented on the event, and the official organ of the Bankers of America carried a page story. Through the cooperation of the New Park theatre, Kinograms film company placed the day's events in its news movies and gave it publicity throughout the United States. The radio carried the story too.

The Brainerd Gun Club, by vote of the Chamber, was extended assistance when it held its one-day shoot in Brainerd, preparatory to the state trapshooting tournament of Captain W. H. Fawcett, who mentioned Brainerd in his various advertisements of the state shoot.

Working in conjunction with the Elks lodge, the Rotary and Lion clubs, Mayor O'Brien, R. R. Wise of the 10,000 Lakes Association, Captain W. H. Fawcett, and others, the Elks state convention has been secured for 1925. This will be one of the really big conventions of the year in Minnesota, and Brainerd will gain much publicity wherever there is an Elks lodge.

The Northern Minnesota Medical Association's convention was secured for Brainerd by Drs. J. A. Thabes and R. A. Beise, and will be held in this city during 1925. Like the Elks convention, the cooperation of the Chamber will be required in entertaining this convention.

While it was impossible to secure the 1925 convention of the United Commercial Travelers of Minnesota and North Dakota, still Brainerd was given much favorable publicity in this respect at the last convention, both by newspapers and in convention addresses.

A recent happening, which gave the city some undesired publicity was the Radio Digest magazine's ill-advised story on a "Churchless Community." To counteract the false impression so gained, following up the various newspaper articles in which Brainerd was defended by Bemidji, St. Cloud, Duluth, twin city and other newspapers, WCCO Washburn-Crosby Gold Medal broadcasting station, has offered to put on a "Brainerd Program" at a date suitable to the Chamber and participants. The date set is Friday, January 30th, from 7:30 to 9 o'clock P. M., and the event has received nation-wide publicity by being mentioned in all papers throughout the United States.

News sent out concerning the Chamber has always reflected an attitude of community helpfulness, the publicity report disclosed, and with a public spirited devotion to Brainerd and its best interests.

The municipal committee had only one duty assigned to it during the past year—the solicitation of material for the building of an information hut, to be administered by the Boy Scout council. The committee performed its duty, the hut was completed, but the work of installing an information bureau was not carried out. The hut, however, remains the property of the Chamber.

The city planning committee while it had no work assigned to it

during the past year, made a report on the subject, which was characterized as a very important one for Brainerd. The matter of city planning, according to this report, is becoming more important each year, and the League of Minnesota Municipalities, at the present session of the state legislature, is preparing to introduce two measures which will assist municipalities in carrying out the idea of a city-wide plan. The League has written for the governing body of the municipalities of Minnesota to study the proposed measures and if in favor of them to endorse the measures by proper resolutions or motions.

A copy of the proposed legislative measures is in the office of the city clerk, continues the committee report, and will be presented to the city council at its next regular meeting. They are primarily introduced so that cities of the second, third or fourth class, and incorporated villages may establish a city planning department, a zoning commission or both.

The chairman of the publicity committee brought up the matter of inviting the state dairymen's convention to Brainerd for its annual meeting next year, and on motion carried such an invitation will be extended. The convention opens in Wadena on next Tuesday.

The ladies auxiliary of the American Legion asked permission to use the club rooms of the Chamber on the first Monday of each month, and this permission was granted providing the rooms are not otherwise taken.

The chairman of the finance committee explained his report for the past year, and suggested a new plan of multiple membership, which the Chamber adopted. The finance committee was asked to prepare the list of membership as suggested in the report and to present this list to the membership committee to be solicited.

FRENCH MAKE AMENDS FOR RUGBY INCIDENT

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Jan. 15.—Six months after an unfortunate incident during the Olympic games at Paris marred for a time the good feeling between French and American athletes, the time comes to set ourselves straight on the matter, and give somewhat belated credit where it is due.

The recent return of Dick Hyland, California rugby star and Olympic hero, is the occasion for publishing the true story of the wild afternoon last summer when the Americans won the rugby championship and the "Star-Spangled Banner" was hissed by French spectators who were busy breaking every American head in sight.

Hyland was the star of the Yankee team which downed the French in the finals in a game featured by slugging and other demonstrations of exceedingly bad sportsmanship. The French team and spectators earned a bad name that day which has lasted pretty much ever since. It is only fair to point out that Hyland, who had most cause to resent this attitude of his opponents and the spectators, has completely changed his mind and has expressed hope of returning to Paris and playing rugby on a French team.

It was Dick who nailed the French "ace," Jaureguay, with a beautiful flying tackle early in the final game and upset the crack player so severely he never got back into the game. Hyland repeatedly raced through the entire French team, dodging and hurdling in what his opponents claimed was unorthodox play. And Hyland, after one scrimmage, was openly punched in the face by the French captain. With remarkable self-control, the Californian avoided precipitating a free-for-all fight on the field and enabled America to win the Olympic championship.

Naturally, Dick couldn't take a punch like that without coming back, so after the game and the flag-raising, he hurried in search of an interpreter and sought out the French captain in the latter's dressing room. In the presence of a hostile group of steaming, sulky athletes, Hyland, a lone American, invited the French captain to finish the affair.

The latter was a sportsman. He apologized, in the presence of his teammates, through the interpreter, for the blow, explained it had been struck in the heat of combat and the bitterness of defeat, and said he would prefer to shake hands. So Hyland shook and went back to his shower bath.

There was a lot of complaint about American rugby methods and a lot of outspoken dissatisfaction with the unsportsmanlike conduct of the French spectators that last day. So many Americans got the lasting impression that the French were exceedingly poor sports with no redeeming features in this respect.

Hyland stayed in France to study French, and took a course at the Sorbonne. A natural athlete, he wanted to keep in condition by playing games, and it wasn't long before several French rugby clubs invited him to play with them. He selected the Stade Francais and played at three-quarters, alongside none other than Jaureguay. The two became fast friends and made many a long run together.

By the time Hyland came to leave for home, he was an athletic hero over there. They gave him a big dinner and made speeches about him, and Hyland honestly returned the compliments.

FARICY RETURNS TO GOPHER TANK TEAM

St. Paul, Jan. 15.—John Faricy, St. Paul, record holder in several distances for the breast stroke, member of the U. S. Olympic swimming team last summer, will be a member of the University of Minnesota swimming team.

Faricy, who had previously attended the University of Minnesota, was not there last year, working in Chicago. He there swam at the Illinois A. C. and under its colors won national fame. Faricy returned to the university last fall and has passed in all his studies with flying colors, thus being eligible for competition with the Gopher tankers.

Faricy's return greatly strengthens Coach Neil Thorpe's Minnesota tankers for Faricy should be able to cop in practically all of the breast stroke and free-style events, and also be a strong asset to the relay team.

AITKIN STAR QUINT TO PLAY MILL CITY

Aitkin, Minn., Jan. 15.—The C. B. 135th field artillery basket ball team, leading contender of this city, will meet the Arion Athletic association five of Minneapolis Saturday, Jan. 17 here.

The Aitkin quint is considered one of the strongest teams and have many tough opponents on their schedule. They will play the Cloquet American Legion five here Thursday, Jan. 22.

These eagles were defeated but twice in the 23 games played last year and have won every game so far this season.

The match was against Volga City, Garnaville winning 68 to 67. Duluth News Tribune.

Roman Chair of State

The curule chair was a chair of state, equivalent to a throne, in use among the early Romans. The chair was usually ornamented with ivory or gold, had curved legs, but no back, and could be folded as a camp stool is folded. It was used by curule magistrates, dictators, consuls, praetors and curule aediles on formal occasions. The right to sit in the presence of others was one of the precious privileges of certain officers.

Nurmi Faces Greatest Test in Two Hard Races

New York, Jan. 15.—Paavo Nurmi will put his remarkable speed and stamina to its greatest test this week when on successive nights he will attempt to lower seven world's indoor records in two races at New York and Chicago.

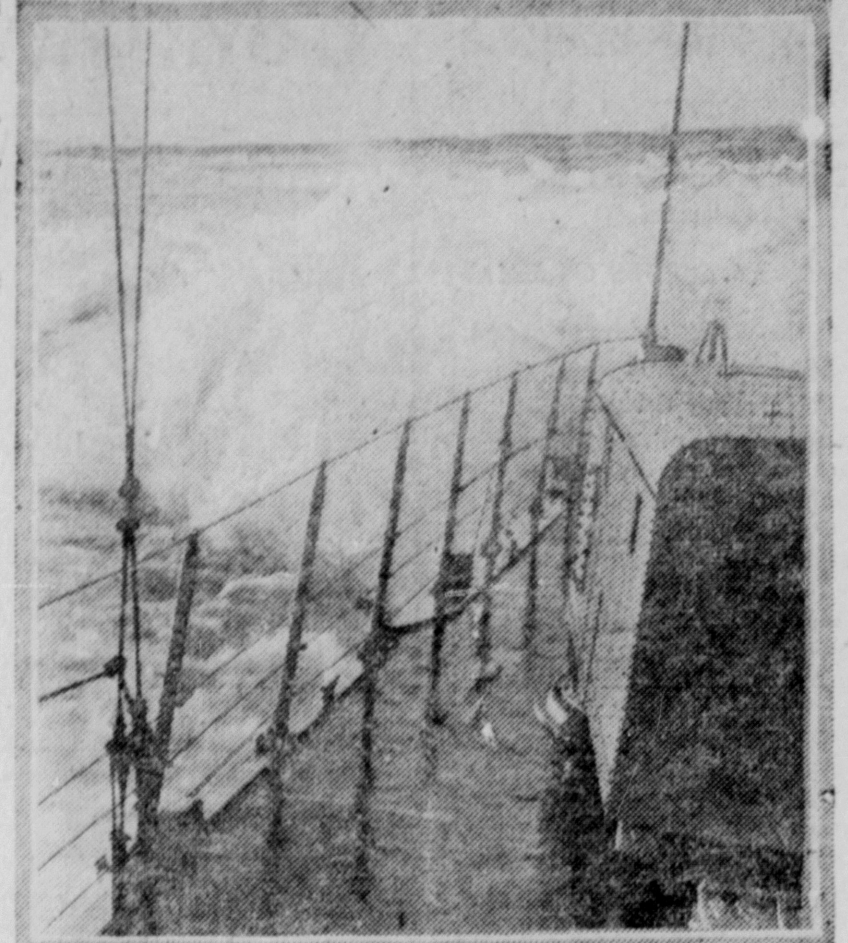

Twice before, at the Olympics, and again at Madison Square Garden, the phantom Finn demonstrated his ability to run two record-breaking races within less than two hours of each other. Even these performances, however, will be eclipsed if he is successful in smashing any records here Thursday night, taking a 21-hour train ride to Chicago and then racing to victory and new records again in the Friday night race against Joie Ray and other stars.

Garbisch Career Is Brought to an End

Edward W. Garbisch, hero of the Army victory, has brought his extended football career to an end. For eight years he has ranked with the best centers in the game and has served as captain of both Washington and Jefferson and the Army. While at Washington and Jefferson he played regular for four years and then entered West Point, where he starred at tackle and center. He also is captain of the cadet lawn tennis team. Garbisch lives at Washington, Pa., where his father is well known as a doctor and where he first gained fame as a member of the Washington high school team.

DO YOU KNOW WHY --- The Right Kind of Advertising Pays?

Drawn for this paper By Fisher

A series of four comic panels showing a shoe store advertisement. In the first panel, a man in a suit stands in front of a sign that reads 'J.H. BROWN FINE SHOES ESTABLISHED 1882' and 'F.D. SMITH SHOE STORE'. A speech bubble from the man says, 'I GUESS THAT OUGHT TO HOLD MY COMPETITOR SMITH NEXT DOOR'. In the second panel, the man is now inside the store, looking at a sign that reads 'J.H. BROWN FINE SHOES ESTABLISHED 1882' and 'F.D. SMITH SHOE STORE'. A speech bubble from him says, 'HUM-MY COMPETITOR BROWN IS TRYING TO PUT IT OVER ON ME'. In the third panel, the man is standing in front of a sign that reads 'J.H. BROWN FINE SHOES ESTABLISHED 1882' and 'F.D. SMITH SHOE STORE'. A speech bubble from him says, 'NO OLD GOODS IN STOCK'. In the fourth panel, the man is standing in front of a sign that reads 'J.H. BROWN FINE SHOES ESTABLISHED 1882' and 'F.D. SMITH SHOE STORE'. A speech bubble from him says, 'NO OLD GOODS IN STOCK'. The signature 'FISHER' is at the bottom right.
